

Ukuleles, anyone?

Sometimes the funding availability from our existing endowment isn't enough to cover all the requests. In that case, the Ashwaubenon Education Foundation has often been successful in securing funding through other venues to support requests for valuable learning experiences. This year the AEF secured funding for the purchase of 30 ukuleles for the elementary music program.

